Amelia Dahl works in our Business Law Practice, where she is part of the Transactions Practice Group. Amelia's experience includes working as an intern for a non-profit organization in Chicago that provides free civil services to people struggling with poverty. In this role, she was responsible for drafting discovery documents, researching, and conducting client interviews. Additionally, Amelia served as a TEFL Volunteer for the Peace Corps in Armenia, where she co-taught English, led English clubs, and served as Curriculum Co-Manager for a nationwide poetry contest. Amelia is a former Summer Associate at Foley.
