Matthew Jassak is a partner and real estate business lawyer with Foley & Lardner LLP and co-chair of the firm's Post-Acute Care & Senior Housing Team. He regularly represents owners, operators, investors, and developers in connection with the development, acquisition, disposition, leasing, financing, and licensing of health care facilities.

As a member of the Real Estate Practice and Hospitality & Leisure Industry Team, Matthew also focuses his practice on representing investors, operators, and developers in all aspects of commercial real estate transactions, including the acquisition and disposition of retail, office, hotel and multifamily properties, commercial mortgage and construction financing, and joint ventures. Matthew also handles condominium formation, fractional ownership plans, private residence clubs, non-equity clubs, hotel conversions, state and federal filings, advertising, golf membership programs and other related matters in the hospitality sector.

In addition to his real estate practice, Matthew handles a wide variety of corporate law matters, including corporate formation; corporate operations and governance and other contract drafting, review and negotiation; mergers and acquisitions; and capital raising transactions.
