

Charles W. Niemann

Associate

cniemann@foley.com

Milwaukee

414.297.5149

Charles (Charlie) Niemann is a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Practice and the Consumer Law, Finance & Class Action Group. Charlie has broad experience litigating complex commercial and class action disputes in state and federal court, in addition to arbitral forums. He has defended clients against claims brought under various consumer protection statutes and in the area of antitrust.

Presentations and Publications

- Co-author, "Resolving Business Disputes: U.S. Discovery in Aid of International Private Commercial Arbitration," Wisconsin Lawyer (November 10, 2020)
- Co-author, "U.S. Discovery in Aid of International Private Commercial Arbitration," ARIAS•U.S. Quarterly (September 2020)
- Co-author, "Supreme Court to Decide Whether Reference to Injunctive Relief in Arbitration Clause Gives Court Power to Rule on Arbitrability of Dispute," Legal News: Insurance & Reinsurance (July 17, 2020)

Sectors

- Manufacturing

Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation
- Consumer Law, Finance & Class Action Group
- Litigation

Education

- University of Minnesota Law School (J.D., magna cum laude, 2019)

- Certified Student Attorney, Consumer Protection Clinic
- Articles Editor, Minnesota Law Review
- University of Wisconsin-Madison (B.A., 2015)
 - Member, Phi Beta Kappa Society

Admissions

- Wisconsin
 - Eastern District of Wisconsin