

Danielle N. O'Neill

Associate

doneill@foley.com

Boston

617.226.3142

Ellie O'Neill's practice focuses on a variety of complex corporate and transactional matters such as mergers & acquisitions and equity investments, as well as general corporate representation for emerging companies, including providing advice in formation and equity allocation. Prior to joining Foley, Ellie was a senior staff attorney for one of the world's leading middle-market private equity sponsors. In this role, she negotiated non-disclosure and related agreements, provided legal guidance to portfolio companies, and completed regulatory filings for the SEC and the Bureau of Economic Analysis.

Representative Experience

- Audax Group and its portfolio company, Beacon Mobility, in various add-on acquisitions and corporate matters, including the acquisitions of:
 - Alltown Bus Service
 - DS Bus Lines and Midwest Bus Sales
 - Health Ride Plus/Tri-County Transportation
 - Huntington Coach Company
- Audax Group and its portfolio company, DISA Global Solutions, in its acquisition of Crimcheck.
- Kids2, Inc. in its take-private acquisition of Summer Infant, Inc. (NASDAQ: SUMR)
- Software AG in its acquisition of StreamSets, Inc.
- SymphonyAI, in its acquisition of NetReveal from BAE Systems.

Awards and Recognition

- Recipient, Pro Bono Honors Award

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Transactions

Education

- Suffolk University Law School (J.D., cum laude, 2019)
 - Dean's List
 - Pro Bono Honors Recipient
- Boston University (B.S., 2014)
 - Dean's List

Admissions

- Massachusetts