

Mark T. Schieble

Partner/Retired

mschieble@foley.com

San Francisco

415.984.9804

Mark T. Schieble is a partner at Foley & Lardner LLP, resident in the firm's San Francisco office. He is a member of the firm's Tax Practice Group and Finance Practice Group, as well as the firm's Health Care & Life Sciences Sector.

In the tax field, Mark specializes in exempt organization matters and tax-exempt finance, but he also regularly practices in the areas of joint ventures, partnerships, and mergers and acquisitions. While Mark's initial experience in the finance field was entirely from the tax perspective, serving as special tax counsel, he began serving as general finance counsel on finance matters some years ago and now regularly serves in the roles of bond counsel, lender's counsel, and borrower's counsel on a variety of matters, but particularly in financings for health care providers, senior housing providers, and low-income housing sponsors.

Awards and Recognition

- Peer Review Rated as AV Preeminent®, the highest performance rating in Martindale-Hubbell's peer review rating system
- Recognized in 2011 by the Legal 500 for his work in domestic tax

Affiliations

- Member, American Bar Association
 - Tax Section
- National Association of Bond Lawyers
- Bar Association of San Francisco

Presentations and Publications

Mark is a frequent speaker and writer on tax and finance matters.

Sectors

FOLEY & LARDNER LLP

- Health Care & Life Sciences
- Racial Justice & Equity

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Finance

Education

- Temple University School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 1980)
 - Associate Editor, Temple Law Quarterly
- University of California, Berkeley (B.A., with honors, 1975)

Admissions

- Pennsylvania (1980)
- California (1984)