Clyde Tinnen advises fund sponsors in connection with the formation and operation of private investment funds, capital deployment, securities law reporting, and compliance (e.g., Securities Act, Exchange Act, Investment Company Act, and Investment Advisers Act). Clyde also advises public corporations in Exchange Act reporting and public and private corporations in negotiating and structuring complex business transactions, including domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, secured and unsecured finance arrangements, public offerings, and private placements. Clyde also provides general corporate counseling and advice on various commercial arrangements. He is a partner in the firm's Fund Formation & Investment Management and Capital Markets Practices. Clyde is the vice chair of the firm's Transactions Practice.

Clyde's clients compete in a myriad of industries including manufacturing, metals and mining, specialty chemical, nanotechnology, retail, lending, and private investment management. He has also represented family offices and limited partner investors in connection with investments in private investment funds.

Before joining Foley & Lardner LLP, Clyde was a partner at two other large international law firms. Prior to working as a lawyer, Clyde was a senior financial analyst for two public corporations.
